

JOHN BROWN.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 241.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. MORRIS, of Ohio, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of John Brown, make the following report :

The petitioner states, on oath, that he enlisted into the service of the United States, in the 11th regiment of United States infantry, at Charleston, New Hampshire, under Captain William Foster, as a private, for and during the war, in April, 1814; that, soon after, he marched to the recruiting rendezvous at Rutland, when he was made a drummer, and continued attached to said Captain Foster's company, as a drummer, during the war; that, in the month of June, he marched with his regiment to the Niagara frontier, and was engaged in the battle at Bridgewater, in which engagement he was twice wounded—once in the left thigh, by a musket-ball, which passed through the thigh, near the groin, and shivered the bone; and, secondly, by a buckshot in the lower part of the calf of his right leg; that, after said battle, he went with his regiment to Fort Erie, and was there at the time of the night attack of that fort by the British. He further says that, at the close of the war, he was discharged. All the material statements above are corroborated by the testimony of one person, who says he was a fifer in the same regiment, saw his wounds after the action, but did not see him receive them. The army surgeon certifies that he is two-thirds disabled by the wounds, (describing them;) and two other physicians testify to one-half disability. The petitioner is proven to be a respectable citizen. Your committee, believing him entitled to the relief asked for, report therefore a bill granting him a pension.
